Any reference to “we”, “us” or “our” in this policy shall mean Singing Sands Holidays.

Throughout this policy “you” means the customer.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation 2018, we constitute the ‘data controller and processor’ in relation to the personal information that we collect about you. As data controller we have certain legal responsibilities surrounding how we collect, use and share your personal information. We must inform you about this, and it is important for you to be aware of the rights afforded to you.

At Singing Sands Holidays, we are committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of our visitors to our web site. In particular, we want you to know that we are not in the business of selling, renting or trading email lists with other companies and businesses for marketing purposes. In this Privacy Policy, we’ve provided lots of detailed information on when and why we collect your personal information, how we use it, the limited conditions under which we may disclose it to others and how we keep it secure.

Types of Data we Collect:

Children

Our website is not targeted at children but in any event personal information will not knowingly be collected from children under sixteen years without parental consent.

Your Rights in Relation to your Personal Information

If you have any questions in relation to our use of your personal information, you should first contact us. You have the right to request a copy of the information which we hold about you. This is called a Data Subject Access Request and is in reference to the following:

- Provide you with further details as to how we use your personal information.
- Provide you with a copy of personal information we have collected about you.
- Update any inaccuracies in the personal information we hold.
- Delete any personal information that we no longer have lawful grounds to use.
- Object to our use of your personal information if our use of your personal information is causing you undue harm. In such cases we must cease using your personal information for that purpose.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate. We will acknowledge and respond to your request within one month of receiving your request.
